GREEN'S BOOKS

Bookbinding & Conservation

Welcome to Issue 7 of our Conservation Newsletter in this, the run-up to Christmas. We've had a busy few months and are delighted to announce that Lena recently received a distinction in her MA in Book Conservation at West Dean College. Below are a few projects we've been working on and our programme of 2022 workshops.

Best wishes for the festive season, Arthur, Emily & Lena.

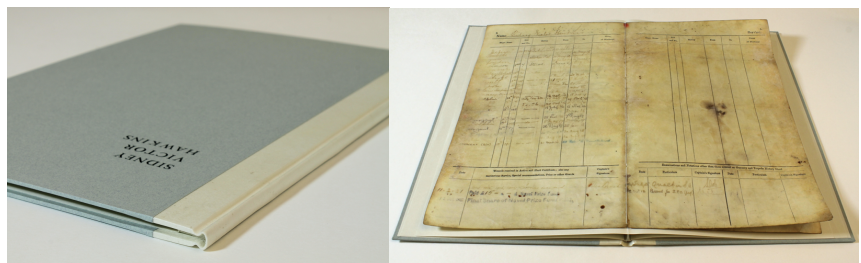

Miniature Silver Book

This Book of Common Prayer (1948) with its Birmingham hallmark had an extraordinary 128mo format; and was expertly conserved by Lena, who managed the rather difficult removal of Sellotape from the title page.

WWI Naval Documents

These parchment World War One Naval documents were cleaned, flattened, and re-housed in a fascicule-inspired, single-section, quarter-covered vellum binding. A very satisfying blend of conservation and bookbinding!
